

Summary

Creative “everything web” engineer, specialising in real-time 3D worlds, research-backed UX, frontend systems, & developer tooling. I build visually ambitious products that scale—with the engineering grunt to back it up.

Hungry for experimentation & perfection?
Technical prowess overwhelming the floors?
In need of a goth-dressing engineer?

Projects

Deceitville

VISIT WRITEUP REPO

A sarcastic, 3D game about deceptive design.

- Won Awwwards Site of the Day Honors 19 FEB’23
- UX research-backed by my dissertation, studying the same topic of deceptive design (fka. dark patterns).
- Invented a novel DOM-bidirectional, SSR-preserving Threlte (Three.js on Svelte) pipeline.
- Reduced bundle size by 10MB+, with custom build-time tooling that split up 3D models by mesh & re-linked buffers based on hash.
